

Assisted Reproduction Symposium

IVI Valencia in collaboration with the Embassy of Switzerland

Date: 24th February 2022

Venue: Ciudad de las Artes y las Ciencias

Science Museum Auditorium (Museo las Ciencias)
Av. Professor López Piñero, 7, 46013 Valencia (Spain)

Program

9:00-9:30h. Registration and welcome

9:30-9:40h. Opening

A. Pellicer, IVIRMA Global President

M.A. García Layunta, Managing Director for Health Care at Consellería de Sanidad Universal y Salud Pública

9:40-9:50h. Special lecture on COVID-19

M. Neira, Director of Public Health and the Environment Department, World Health Organisation

Session 1

9:50h. Ovarian rejuvenation; state of the art

A. Pellicer, Spain-Italy

10:20h. Precision Medicine in implantation failure: state of the art

P. Díaz-Gimeno, Spain

10:50h. Vaginal/endometrial microbiome: effect on (in)fertility, pregnancy, and birth

J. García Velasco, Spain

11:20-12:00h. Coffee break

Session 2

12:00h. Stem-cell based generation of eggs and sperm: scientific and society perspectives

S. Herraiz, Spain

12:30h. Genome editing in the germ line - promise and risks

F. Zambelli, Spain

13:00-13:30h. Apéritif offered by the Ambassador of Switzerland.

13:30-14:30h. Lunch.

Session 3

14:30h. Health of children born after ART: what do the data tell us?

A. Pinborg, Denmark

15:00h. Population ageing and the role of medically assisted reproduction

M. Connolly, GMAS

15:30h. Artificial intelligence: applications in reproductive medicine decision making

M. Meseguer, Spain

16:00-16:30h. Coffee break

Session 4

16:30h. Joint decision making in infertility treatment planning: what do patients want?

J. Boivin, UK

17:00h. Is donor anonymity going to end? Ethical and genetic considerations

G. Pennings, Belgium

17:30h. Closing

H. Mock, Ambassador of Switzerland to Spain and Andorra

Sponsors:

GEDEON RICHTER

MERCK

IVIRMA Global Education

education.info@ivirma.com

<https://iviglobaleducation.com/ivirmasymposium2022>

